Plain-language Explanation (English)

Congratulations! You are eligible for immunization for your child, who is under 5 years old and registered. To ensure your child receives the necessary vaccinations, please bring the following documents to your appointment: a birth certificate and the guardian's CNIC (National Identity Card). It's important to complete the vaccination schedule to protect your child from preventable diseases. If you have any questions or need assistance, feel free to ask. Thank you for prioritizing your child's health!
